The Implementation must be performed in accordance with Comscore's implementation instructions and is the Client's sole responsibility. If the Implementation is not properly performed, any reporting to Client may be incomplete, incorrect, or unavailable. Where the Third-Party Platform is Facebook Network (which shall be defined as any and all third-party websites, applications, properties, and advertising channels that Facebook and/or its Affiliates serve advertisements or other commercial or sponsored content), such request shall also constitute Client's consent to the Third-Party Platform using those Third-Party Impressions for Facebook Network, in whole or in part, for the internal use by Facebook and its Affiliates and to distribute any CCR reports derived therefrom (the "Reports") to Facebook's and Facebook Affiliates' clients and third parties, including the general public, provided that with respect to such distribution, neither Facebook nor any of its Affiliates may identify the advertiser that ran an ad campaign on Facebook, except to that advertiser itself, and Facebook will aggregate the Reports across multiple advertisers in a manner intended to preclude identification, directly or indirectly, of any advertiser.

3. Training. A paid subscription includes up to 2 days of training.
4. Limited Disclosure Right; Client Obligations. Client may disclose the CCI data, reports and information made available by Comscore under the Service Order in which Client purchased CCI ("CCI Data") for no monetary consideration to advertisers, sponsors and other third parties consistent with and as reasonably necessary for Client's customary business activities, provided that in no event may Client disclose, whether in writing, electronically or verbally, the actual number of reporting set top boxes or households. Except as expressly permitted above, Client shall not disclose, display, publish or distribute any CCI Data, regardless of any disclosure right that may otherwise exist in the Original Agreement. Any disclosure of CCI Data as permitted in the Service Order in which Client purchased CCI, and any use of such data by parties to whom it is disclosed, shall be at Client's sole risk and Client shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless Comscore and its affiliates from and against all losses, expenses, damages and costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, arising out of any such disclosure or use. Any CCI Data disclosed by Client as permitted under the Service Order in which Client purchased CCI shall unless otherwise requested by Comscore identify Comscore as the source in a location and format reasonably acceptable to Comscore.
5. Restrictions on Use. In addition to the restrictions set forth in the Original Agreement, Client shall not: (a) disclose or present CCI Data in a manner that is modified, incomplete, incorrect, or otherwise reasonably likely to mislead the recipient; or (b) delete, obscure, alter, or fail to reproduce any copyright, trademark, disclaimer or other proprietary notices appearing in or on any reports generated by or made available through the CCI system. Comscore reserves the right to impose additional restrictions on Client's use or disclosure of CCI Data to the extent the provider of the corresponding raw data imposes such restrictions on Comscore.
6. Termination of Comscore's Rights to Use Data. If any of Comscore's rights to use any data necessary to provide any Syndicated Deliverables is restricted by the provider of such data, Comscore may impose similar restrictions on the Client's right to use any such Syndicated Deliverables. If any of Comscore's rights to use any data necessary to provide any Syndicated Deliverables expires or is terminated by the provider of such data, Comscore may discontinue the provision of any such Syndicated Deliverables, in which case the Client shall be granted a credit by Comscore equal to any prepaid amount of the affected Syndicated Deliverables. Such credit can only be used by Client to extend the duration of the Service Order in which Client purchased CCI or to purchase additional Comscore Syndicated Deliverables, not for a refund.

7. Rights upon Termination or Expiration. Upon expiration or termination of the Service Order in which Client purchased CCI, all rights granted to Client in the Syndicated Deliverables, including the right to access any systems or use any data, shall immediately terminate.
8. No Reprocessing of Data. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Original Agreement, in no event shall Comscore be required to reprocess, repopulate, or correct any CCI Data or other data made available under the Service Order in which Client purchased CCI.

XIV. Theatrical Products

1. Applicability. The following terms apply to theatrical products including Comscore Movies, Box Office Essentials (BOE), International Box Office Essentials (IBOE), Global Box Office Essentials (GBOE), PostTrak (Domestic and International), Forecast, Swift, and related data feeds (collectively, "Theatrical Products").
2. Access. All access to any Theatrical Products which are made available to Client through an online web interface is subject to the Terms of Service ("TOS"), which are located on the website where Client accesses the Deliverables. The TOS, as they may be amended, restated, or updated from time to time by Comscore in accordance with their terms, are by this reference incorporated herein and made a part hereof. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Service Order and the applicable TOS, the terms of this Service Order shall control.
3. Co-Requisite Licenses. Forecast, Swift and BOE or IBOE data feeds each require that Client maintains a license for BOE, IBOE, GBOE or Comscore Movies, as applicable, during the term of the data feed subscription.
4. No Disclosure Right; Client Obligations. Subject to any additional restrictions set forth in the Service Order in which Client purchased the applicable Theatrical Products, Client may use the Deliverables for Client's internal business purposes only, and all Deliverables shall be Comscore Confidential Information under the Original Agreement. Any internal or (if expressly permitted, external) dissemination of Deliverables shall include any proprietary statements, notices and disclaimers generated by the applicable Deliverables, and in no event shall Client delete, obscure, alter, or fail to reproduce any of the foregoing. In addition, any Deliverables generated (a) by BOE, IBOE, GBOE Comscore Movies shall include the following: "Source: Comscore Movies™, a product of comScore, Inc.", and (b) by PostTrak shall include the following: "Source: PostTrak, a Product of comScore, Inc. and Screen Engine LLC", or in each case such other attribution language as Comscore may request. Access to Deliverables is subject to the raw data being provided to Comscore by its data suppliers.
5. Termination of Comscore's Rights to Use Data. If any of Comscore's rights to use any data necessary to provide any Deliverables expires or is terminated by the provider of such data or if any studio or distributor requests that Comscore cease providing some or all Deliverables to Client, Comscore may discontinue the provision of any such Deliverables, in which case the Client shall be granted a credit by Comscore equal to any prepaid amount of the affected Deliverables. Such credit can only be used by Client to extend the duration of the Service Order in which Client purchased the applicable Theatrical Products or to purchase additional Deliverables, not for a refund.
6. Rights upon Termination or Expiration. Upon expiration or termination of the Service Order in which Client purchased the applicable Theatrical Products, all rights granted to Client in the Deliverables, including the right to access any systems or use any data, shall immediately terminate, and Client and each employee accessing the Deliverables hereunder shall return or destroy (at Comscore's election) all electronic or hard copies of the Deliverables and all derivatives thereof, including but not limited to copies residing on leased servers, at hosting services, on disaster recovery servers, in backups or in archives, and within 30 days after termination or expiration of the Service Order in which Client purchased the applicable Theatrical Products, Client shall certify in writing to Comscore that it has complied with the requirements of this paragraph.

7. Release Schedule. If Client is a studio or distributor, Client shall provide Comscore with a release schedule and periodic updates thereto upon Comscore's first request.
8. No Reprocessing of Data. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Original Agreement, in no event shall Comscore be required to reprocess, repopulate, or correct any Deliverable Data.
9. Use. Theatrical Product Deliverables and/or data are intended for use by Client only in association with tools and systems provided by Comscore; accordingly, such Deliverables and/or data may not be transferred or otherwise used in association with any third-party application, system, program, software, service, or other offering, unless such use is expressly approved in writing in the applicable Service Order (or an authorized Amendment thereto). Theatrical Product Deliverables are not intended to be used (i) in connection with research where the primary use is for making investment decisions, or (ii) for reporting or calculating royalties or other fees based on, or otherwise measuring, usage of content, and any use for such purposes shall be at Client's sole risk; (b) Theatrical Product Deliverables are for Client's internal use only, and Client shall not have the right to sell, transfer, license, copy, disclose, display, publish, distribute or disseminate any Theatrical Product Deliverables; and (c) Client shall not directly or indirectly use any automated data gathering or extraction tools, program, algorithm or methodology to access, acquire, copy or extract any data from Theatrical Products, nor will Client download or extract data in a manner that Comscore finds objectionable (e.g., downloads of large amounts of data, or repeated frequent downloads of the same or similar updated data).

XV. Branded Content and effective CPM (eCPM) Products

1. Password Expiration. Any passwords that are unused for a period of 90 consecutive days will, at Comscore's option, expire.
2. Permitted Use; Restrictions on Use - Non-Agencies. This paragraph applies unless Client is an Agency (as defined in the following paragraph) acquiring the Deliverables for an end-customer. The Deliverables provided under the Service Order in which Client purchased Branded Content and/or eCPM may be used only internally for Client's customary and ordinary business activities. Client may only disclose the Deliverables consistent with and as reasonably necessary for such business activities, so long as (a) Client does not receive any monetary consideration for the Deliverables or the disclosure thereof, and (b) the Deliverables are not disclosed or presented in a manner that is modified, incomplete, incorrect, or otherwise reasonably likely to mislead the recipient. Any disclosure of the Deliverables shall be at Client's sole risk and Client shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Comscore from and against all third-party claims or suits (and all losses, expenses, damages and costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, relating thereto) arising out of any such disclosure. For any Deliverable that Client is authorized to disclose, unless otherwise advised by Comscore, Client shall identify Comscore as the source of the Deliverable in a location and format reasonably acceptable to Comscore. Client shall not: (a) use, copy, reproduce, or duplicate the Deliverables or contents thereof (collectively the "Comscore Materials") for any purposes except as expressly permitted in the Service Order in which Client purchased Branded Content and/or eCPM; (b) disassemble, reverse engineer, decompile or prepare derivative works of the Comscore Materials (except that Client shall be permitted to prepare derivative works of the Deliverables in furtherance of the permitted use thereof); or (c) rent, sublicense, transfer, or grant any rights in the Comscore Materials in any form to any third party.
3. Permitted Use; Restrictions on Use - Agencies. This paragraph applies if Client is an advertising agency ("Agency") acquiring the Deliverables for an end-customer. The Deliverables may be used only internally for Agency's customary and ordinary business activities for the benefit of that specific end-customer only. Agency may only disclose the Deliverables to that end-customer consistent with and as reasonably necessary for such business activities, so long as the Deliverables are not disclosed or presented in a manner that is modified, incomplete, incorrect, or otherwise reasonably likely to mislead the end-customer. Any disclosure of the Deliverables shall be at Agency's sole risk and Agency shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless Comscore and its Affiliates from and against all third-party claims or suits (and all losses, expenses, damages and costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, relating thereto) arising out of any such disclosure. For any Deliverables that Agency is authorized to disclose, unless otherwise advised by Comscore, Agency shall identify Comscore as the source of the Deliverable in a location format reasonably acceptable to Comscore. Neither Agency nor the end-customer shall: (a) use, copy, reproduce, or duplicate the Deliverables or contents thereof (collectively the "Comscore Materials") for any purposes except as expressly permitted in the Service Order in which Client purchased Branded Content and/or eCPM; (b) disassemble, reverse engineer, decompile or prepare derivative works of the Comscore Materials; or (c) rent, sublicense, transfer, or grant any rights in the Comscore Materials in any form to any third-party.

4. Restrictions on Use. Client, or any third party acting on Client's behalf, may not (a) sell, resell, license or transfer for value the Deliverables; (b) publicly disclose or publish any Deliverable in its entirety, or the substantial equivalent of same; (c) reverse engineer or attempt to reverse engineer the Deliverables or any Comscore system; (d) derive or attempt to derive any Personal Information from the Deliverables; (e) unless responding to a subpoena or other valid process, introduce the Deliverables or derivatives thereof as part of an investigation or court proceeding; or (f) knowingly use the Deliverables in a manner that creates any third-party cause of action or liability on the part of Comscore, its affiliates or licensors. Client shall not: (a) disclose or present the Deliverables in a manner that is modified, incomplete, incorrect, or otherwise reasonably likely to mislead the recipient; or (b) delete, obscure, alter, or fail to reproduce any copyright, trademark, disclaimer, or other proprietary notices appearing in or on any Deliverables.
5. Comscore's Rights to Use Data. If any of Comscore's rights to use any data necessary to provide any Deliverables expires or is terminated or modified by the provider of such data, Comscore may discontinue or amend, at Comscore's discretion, the provision of any such Deliverables. In the case of such discontinuation, the Client shall be granted a credit by Comscore equal to any prepaid amount of the affected Deliverables. Such credit can only be used by Client to extend the duration of any other Deliverables contained in the Service Order in which Client purchased Branded Content and/or eCPM, or to purchase additional Comscore Deliverables, not for a refund. Client appoints Comscore as its agent to access and view content necessary to perform the services and provide the Deliverables outlined herein and represents and warrants that it has the rights necessary to make this appointment and to allow Comscore to access and view such content, and shall indemnify, defend and hold Comscore harmless from and against any and all third-party claims against Comscore arising due to breach of the foregoing, including any allegation that accessing or viewing this content is in violation of any third-party rights.

If Client is purchasing Cross-Platform Insights Module (powered by Pathmatics), then these additional terms apply:

6. Prerequisites. During the term of the Service Order in which Client purchased Cross-Platform Insights Module (powered by Pathmatics), Client must maintain an active subscription, with at least the same service period to Comscore Branded Content - TV Intelligence Module.

XVI. Out of Home (OOH) Products

1. Licensing. Deliverables are licensed and not sold. Comscore grants Client a non-exclusive, non-assignable and non-transferable license, during the term of the Service Order in which Client purchased OOH, to use the Deliverables directly by Client for its internal business purposes only; provided, however, that Client may provide the Deliverables to a third-party agent that is operating under terms of a written agreement with the Client at least as comprehensive and restrictive as the terms hereof, so long as Client remains responsible for the acts and actions of such third-party agent, and then only where the specified use by such third-party agent is consistent with and reasonably necessary for Client's internal business activities, and for no other purpose. Unless otherwise provided in the Service Order in which Client purchased OOH, Client may not (i) sell, resell, license or transfer the Deliverables, including for any type of commercial value or gain whatsoever; (ii) use the Deliverables for the purposes of marketing activation or individual targeting; (iii) make any unapproved modification; (iv) publicly disclose or publish any Deliverable in its entirety, or the substantial equivalent of same; (v) reverse engineer or attempt to reverse engineer the Deliverables or any Comscore system; (vi) derive or attempt to derive any Personal Information from the Deliverables, or otherwise use them for marketing mix modeling, lift studies or attribution in any manner (unless otherwise expressly agreed by the parties); (vii) unless responding to a subpoena or other valid process, introduce the Deliverables or derivatives thereof as part of an investigation or court proceeding; or (viii) knowingly use the Deliverables in a manner that creates any third-party cause of action or liability on the part of Comscore, its Affiliates or licensors, and in that regard Client warrants that any of its methodologies and/or platforms utilizing any deliverable provided hereunder shall output only deidentified data and shall not contain any Personal Information. Client is responsible for ensuring that all use of the Deliverables complies with this license and for seeking advance written permission from Comscore for any use not expressly so authorized.

2. Third-Party use. If Client desires that a third party be allowed access or use of the Deliverables or any data therein, for purposes beyond Client's internal business use, then that third party must contract directly with Comscore to be given such access and use-rights. In each such circumstance, Client shall introduce the third party to Comscore in writing (email sufficient), and such introduction shall be sufficient without further action to permit Comscore to contract with the third party and provide them with some or all of the Deliverables. By way of example, but not limitation, where Client works with a third party to sell inventory on Client's network(s), then that activity is outside Client's internal business use, and that third party must therefore contract with Comscore as provided herein for access or use of the Deliverables or any data therein.
3. Agency use. If Client is an advertising agency ("Agency") acquiring the Deliverables for an end-customer, then Client must identify that end-customer to Comscore and the Deliverables may be used by the Agency and their end-customers in strict compliance with the applicable license terms and restrictions set forth herein, and only internally for Agency's customary and ordinary business activities for the benefit of that specific end-customer only. Any disclosure of the Deliverables shall be at Agency's sole risk and Agency shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless Comscore and its Affiliates from and against all third-party claims or suits (and all losses, expenses, damages and costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, relating thereto) arising out of any such disclosure. For any Deliverables that Agency is authorized to disclose, unless otherwise advised by Comscore, Agency shall identify Comscore as the source of the Deliverable in a location format reasonably acceptable to Comscore. For clarity, neither Agency nor the end-customer shall: (a) use, copy, reproduce, or duplicate the Deliverables or contents thereof (collectively the "Comscore Materials) for any purposes except as expressly permitted in the Service Order in which Client purchased OOH (b) disassemble, reverse engineer, decompile or prepare derivative works of the Comscore Materials; or (c) rent, sublicense, transfer, or grant any rights in the Comscore Materials in any form to any third-party.
4. Comscore's Rights to Use Data. If any of Comscore's rights to use any data necessary to provide any Deliverables expires or is terminated or modified by the provider of such data, Comscore may discontinue or amend, at Comscore's discretion, the provision of any such Deliverables. In the case of such discontinuation, the Client shall be granted a credit by Comscore equal to any prepaid amount of the affected Deliverables. Such credit can only be used by Client to extend the duration of any other Deliverables contained in the Service Order in which Client purchased OOH, or to purchase additional Comscore Deliverables, not for a refund. Client appoints Comscore as its agent to access and view content necessary to perform the services and provide the Deliverables outlined herein and represents and warrants that it has the rights necessary to make this appointment and to allow Comscore to access and view such content, and shall indemnify, defend and hold Comscore harmless from and against any and all third-party claims against Comscore arising due to breach of the foregoing, including any allegation that accessing or viewing this content is in violation of any third-party rights.

5. Non-Compete. Due to the nature of the data being provided under the Service Order in which Client purchased OOH, Client agrees not to develop, assist in developing, or engage a third party to develop or assist in developing, any services or products based on any data gained through such Service Order that would compete with any of Comscore's products and services in existence on the Effective Date. Nothing in this section will prevent Client from acquiring any products or services that are developed independently by a third party without use of the Comscore data being provided under the Service Order in which Client purchased OOH. Client expressly agrees that this non-competition provision is reasonable, and that this provision shall survive termination or expiration of the Service Order in which Client purchased OOH and the Original Agreement.
6. Public Dissemination. In addition to the other terms governing public dissemination of the Deliverables and/or the data therein, Client represents and warrants that it shall cease all further public dissemination of the Deliverables and/or data therein within one year after the expiration or termination of the Service Order in which Client purchased OOH, unless it obtains the prior written consent of a Comscore authorized executive to continue such use. This representation and warranty apply equally to any public dissemination of information that may have previously been allowed or approved prior to such expiration or termination, and for each such instance the public dissemination shall cease unless a new written consent by a Comscore authorized executive is obtained to allow ongoing public dissemination. It is the intent of the Parties that this clause survives expiration or termination of the Service Order in which Client purchased OOH, such that failure to comply with the terms hereof shall be deemed a material breach of contract.

XVII. Analytical Solutions - Data Feeds

1. Licensing. Deliverables are licensed and not sold. Comscore grants Client a non-exclusive, non-assignable and non-transferable license, during the term of the Service Order in which Client purchased the Analytical Solutions, to use the Deliverables directly by Client for its internal business purposes only; provided, however, that Client may provide the Deliverables to a third-party agent that is operating under terms of a written agreement with the Client at least as comprehensive and restrictive as the terms hereof, so long as Client remains responsible for the acts and actions of such third-party agent, and then only where the specified use by such third-party agent is consistent with and reasonably necessary for Client's internal business activities, and for no other purpose. Unless otherwise provided in the Service Order in which Client purchased the Analytical Solutions, Client may not (i) sell, resell, license or transfer the Deliverables, including for any type of commercial value or gain whatsoever; (ii) use the Deliverables for the purposes of marketing activation or individual targeting; (iii) make any unapproved modification; (iv) publicly disclose or publish any Deliverable in its entirety, or the substantial equivalent of same; (v) reverse engineer or attempt to reverse engineer the Deliverables or any Comscore system; (vi) derive or attempt to derive any Personal Information from the Deliverables, or otherwise use them for marketing mix modeling, lift studies or attribution in any manner (unless otherwise expressly agreed by the parties); (vii) unless responding to a subpoena or other valid process, introduce the Deliverables or derivatives thereof as part of an investigation or court proceeding; or (viii) knowingly use the Deliverables in a manner that creates any third-party cause of action or liability on the part of Comscore, its Affiliates or licensors, and in that regard Client warrants that any of its methodologies and/or platforms utilizing any deliverable provided hereunder shall output only deidentified data and shall not contain any Personal Information. Client is responsible for ensuring that all use of the Deliverables complies with this license and for seeking advance written permission from Comscore for any use not expressly so authorized.

2. Non-Compete. Due to the nature of the data being provided under the Service Order in which Client purchased the Analytical Solutions, Client agrees not to develop, assist in developing, or engage a third party to develop or assist in developing, any services or products based on any data gained through such Service Order that would compete with any of Comscore's products and services in existence on the Effective Date. Nothing in this section will prevent Client from acquiring any products or services that are developed independently by a third party without use of the Comscore data being provided under the Service Order in which Client purchased the Analytical Solutions. Client expressly agrees that this non-competition provision is reasonable, and that this provision shall survive termination or expiration of the Service Order in which Client purchased the Analytical Solutions and the Original Agreement.
3. Privacy. Client agrees that any Personal Information received from Comscore shall be retained only so long as there is a legitimate business purpose for its retention, and in no event shall the Client retain data in the precise form received from Comscore for more than 90 days after which all such Personal Information shall be destroyed, and at Comscore's request Client shall provide written certification of its compliance with this commitment. Client will not, and will ensure that its employees, agents, personnel and representatives do not, directly or indirectly (a) attempt to discover or associate any personal data or personally identifiable data (as such terms are defined under applicable laws and regulations) with a Comscore panelist or data subject, or (b) use the Deliverables to engage in any marketing activities knowingly directed to Comscore panelists or any other data subjects.

XVIII. Social Audience ("Shareablee") Products

1. Terms & Conditions. Delivery of Shareablee Deliverables is subject to the terms and conditions set out on <https://www.shareablee.com/content/terms-and-conditions>.
2. Implementation. "Implementation" shall be defined as the implementation (including configuration) by Client, or any party directly or indirectly engaged by Client ("Client's Partner"), of either the Comscore tag(s) or any alternative method(s) through which data is, directly or indirectly, provided to Comscore. The Implementation must be performed in accordance with Comscore's implementation instructions and is the Client's sole responsibility. If the Implementation is not properly performed, any reporting to Client may be incomplete, incorrect, or unavailable. Comscore may, in its sole discretion, suspend the provision of services if in its commercially reasonable judgment suspension is necessitated by any acts or actions (whether by Client or Client's Partner) in breach of this clause.
3. Social Handle Authentication. Some Social Audience products may require, and others may benefit from, authentication of Client's social handles with Shareablee.

If Client is purchasing any of these specific Shareablee products:

- a) Brand Surveys
- b) Campaign Performance Index (CPI)
- c) Behavioral Lift
- d) Shareablee Ad Hoc

then this additional term applies:

4. During the term of the Service Order in which Client purchased any of the Shareablee product listed above, Client must maintain an active subscription, with at least the same service period, to Insight Studio.

5. If Client is purchasing any Shareablee “Add-on” product, then during the term of the Service Order in which Client purchased such Shareablee Add-on product, Client must maintain an active subscription, with at least the same service period and geography, to Shareablee Platform.

XIX. Total Digital Products

1. Total Digital provides access to a dashboard containing limited digital and social audience metrics; access to additional metrics through the dashboard requires Client to be subscribed, during the term of the Service Order in which Client purchased Total Digital, to:
 - a) (in relation to social metrics) Shareablee Platform; and
 - b) (in relation to any other metrics) MMX Desktop and MMX Multi-Platform (with the same data months, data coverage / geography, categories, and delivery frequency)
2. The Digital Audience Products terms specified herein shall apply to all the digital portions of the Total Digital Deliverables, and the Social Audience (“Shareablee”) Products terms specified herein shall apply to the social audience portions of the Total Digital Deliverables.

B) GENERAL TERMS

General terms applicable to all Service Orders

1. Applicability. Where a Service Order includes Deliverables from more than one of the product-specific categories set forth herein, then the Product Terms for each applicable product-specific category shall apply to that Service Order.
2. API and Data Feed Products. A fee for an API or a data feed grants Client use of a data delivery mechanism only, and does not include a license to data available via such delivery mechanism. The license for data delivered through the API or data feed is to be covered in the relevant product-purchase fee separately.
3. Access, Fair Use, Termination. Any use of APIs, FTPs or other forms of access made available by Comscore must be in a fair and reasonable manner. Comscore may request the Client to limit or otherwise modify its usage of any such form of access if such usage (i) materially exceeds the fair and reasonable use that Comscore had envisioned when dimensioning its systems, acting reasonably, and (ii) in Comscore's reasonable assessment may affect the usability or availability of any services provided by Comscore. Client shall provide all reasonably required assistance and information in connection with such a request. Where feasible, Comscore may choose to make alternative methods of access available to the Client for an additional fee. Any such access is limited to the authorized users permissioned by Comscore. Comscore reserves the right to suspend such access, or to terminate any Service Order, in the event Client does not meet its payment obligations or breaches its other obligations under any Service Order. If Comscore exercises its right to suspend a Service Order, Client's obligation to make payment in full under the terms of the Service Order shall continue to accrue during the period of any suspension and shall immediately vest in full in the event of termination. Comscore has the right to issue invoices for Deliverables provided under a Service Order (including for excess usage or similar delivered benefits that may not be expressly contemplated in the invoicing schedule stated in the Service Order), and Client has the obligation to pay such invoices, and such rights and obligations shall survive termination of such Service Order, for any reason.
4. Assumption. The parties agree that each Service Order governing intellectual property rights, including the license to use Deliverables, is an executory contract for the purposes of Section 365 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, which may not be assigned or assumed per Section 365(c) of the Bankruptcy Code absent Comscore's consent. Therefore, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, in the event Client files for bankruptcy or other similar relief, no Service Order (nor the rights or obligations thereunder) may be assigned or assumed absent express written consent for such assignment and/or assumption from an authorized representative of Comscore. Any purported assignment or assumption not meeting these conditions shall be deemed void ab initio.

5. Attribution. If a Deliverable contains any source or attribution language or information, including copyright notices, then Client shall retain such source or attribution language or information in any Use of the Deliverable.
6. Comscore Markets™. Use of Comscore Markets shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the Comscore Markets License Agreement set forth at <https://www.comscore.com/Media/Files/Legal/Comscore-Markets-Terms>.
7. Data Covered Under Other Subscriptions. From time to time, Comscore, at its discretion, may choose to include third-party data in certain Deliverables, as a no-cost add-on, during the term of the Service Order in which Client purchased said Deliverables. In all cases, such no-cost add-ons shall be subject to Client's ongoing compliance with such conditions as Comscore may require, including conditions such as: (i) that Client shall have an active subscription to said third-party data with the third party and (ii) that the third party shall have notified Comscore of the existence of said active subscription. By way of example, but not limitation, Comscore may choose to offer add-on reporting information derived from Datalou LLC ("Datalou") to its Clients who maintain active subscriptions with Datalou, provided that Datalou has notified Comscore of this active subscription. For clarity, all such add-ons offered at no cost are subject to Section 18 below.
8. Data Restrictions. Unless otherwise specified in the Agreement, no party will share or make available to another party any sensitive or special categories of personal data ("SPI"), as defined under the applicable data protection laws; if a party is to make SPI available under any Agreement, then the party providing the SPI represents and warrants that it has sufficient rights to provide that SPI and that it has obtained all necessary rights and consents from any third parties to provide the SPI. Client may not send to Comscore or use Deliverables from people, information that: (i) it knows or reasonably should know is from or about children under the age of 13; or (ii) includes health, financial, biometrics, or other categories of similarly sensitive information (including any information defined as sensitive under applicable law); except in cases where (a) the terms for those Deliverables specifically allow it or (b) Client is sending financial information for the express purpose of effecting a financial transaction. Deliverables are not intended for and may not be used (i) in connection with investment purposes and/or to inform investment decisions, including research or modeling for those purposes, and (ii) Client represents and warrants that it shall not use Deliverables for such purposes and shall indemnify and hold Comscore harmless for any use in breach hereof.
9. Public Release. Client use of Deliverables is subject to the usage guidelines as set forth at <https://www.comscore.com/Insights/Data-Usage-Policy>. Comscore shall have the right to publicly identify Client as a customer and publicly announce any Service Orders entered into.
10. No Unilateral Terms. No unilateral terms or conditions on materials issued by Client, including without limitation, purchase orders and order forms, will be used to interpret or amend the parties' legal rights and responsibilities as they pertain to the Deliverables provided hereunder.
11. IVT Avoidance Notice. The Media Rating Council (MRC) and the industry seek to combat invalid traffic (IVT). Client will familiarize itself with and support the MRC's Invalid Traffic Detection and Filtration Guidelines, (which are available on the MRC website at: <https://mediaratingcouncil.org/sites/default/files/Standards/IVT%20Addendum%20Update%20062520.pdf>).
12. No Transfer of License. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Agreement or herein, the rights and licenses granted under any Service Order are nonexclusive and personal to Client (as such Client entity is constituted as of the Effective Date of such Service Order) and may not be assigned or transferred, including in the event of a change of controlling ownership, without Comscore's prior written approval.
13. No Manipulation. Comscore reserves the right to suspend services where it suspects any attempt to interfere with the intended operation of its business, or to otherwise manipulate the intended purpose of any Service

Order in any way. This determination is made at Comscore's sole discretion. If such determination is made, then Comscore shall also, upon reasonable notice, have the right to audit and otherwise examine the Client's systems and records to determine adherence to the terms set forth herein, and Client agrees to make available its systems and relevant records, which it shall maintain in accordance with industry preferred data practices.

14. Use of Deliverables as Input. No Deliverables may be used by Client or any third party as an input into any product, service, model or analytical process, nor may the Deliverables be used to enhance algorithms, models, or filtering criteria, unless the Service Order in which Client purchased the Deliverables expressly allows such use(s). By way of example, unless Client has purchased any Deliverables intended to be used for activation and/or targeting purposes, under a Service Order explicitly allowing that specific use, then the Deliverables may not be used for any activation and/or targeting purposes, nor may they be used as an input into any product, service, model or analytical process facilitating activation and/or targeting uses, nor may they be used to enhance algorithms, models, or filtering criteria for activation and/or targeting uses. For clarity, as used in this clause, the term 'activation' shall mean all forms of activation including contextual and audience activation, and the term 'targeting' shall mean any marketing strategy that involves identifying specific persons, households, devices, content, locations or markets for delivering advertising.
15. Data Use. When Client provides data to Comscore, causes third parties to provide data to Comscore, or allows Comscore to collect data, such action affirms that Client has all rights, and has obtained all third-party consents necessary, for Comscore to use that data for generating the Deliverables and improving its models and methodologies, and Client shall be required to maintain an active Data Sharing Agreement with Comscore (as specified below).
16. Other Agreements.
